WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

We all like a pat on the back and a word of encouragement for a job well done. The Bible also is not silent in providing God's children words of encouragement. The work 'encourage' means, according to W.E. Vin, to urge forward persuade. It is used in Acts 18:27 when Apollos was encouraged by the brethren to go to Achaia (Greece). It is used in I Thessalonians 2:11 and 5:14 where it means to stimulate to the discharge of the ordinary duties of life. In John 11:19, 31, it means to comfort.

What words of encouragement do you find in the Bible? Let me share with you some that have encouraged me:

- In Philippians 1:21 Paul writes, 'For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain'. I appreciate Paul's words. I can just imagine after spending approximately 25 years in the ministry for Christ that Paul is ready to go home to the Lord. He has been beaten up and ship wrecked on more than one occasion. He is looking forward to heaven but, he also knows, that he has more to do.
- In Galatians 2:20 Paul again writes, 'I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which now lives in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself up for me'. Paul was clearly a man of conviction and passion. He personally knew Jesus Christ and Paul was determined to live Christ everyday.
- In Colossians 3:23, 24 Paul writes, 'what ever you do, do your work heartily as for the Lord rather than for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Lord Christ who you serve.' I am confident that Paul was tired and frustrated at times. He must have thought how wonderful it would be to go back to secular work and settle down. However, his work was for the Lord and it was the Lord who would reward him.

Be encouraged to live the Christian Life! Be encouraged to work and labor in the Kingdom of God! Be encouraged each day to be a parent, a spouse or a single mom or dad, or a student. Be encouraged!

A Word of Encouragement

“Be on the alert, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong.” 1 Corinthians 16:13. NAS95.

WHO HAS THE WORDS OF ETERNAL LIFE?

Jesus had been teaching, healing, and feeding the people. His fame had spread all over Galilee, and tremendous crowds were following Him. But many were following for the wrong reasons; they wanted to make Him a political king, because He fed them. So Jesus found it necessary to winnow out those with the wrong motivations by teaching “hard” things. And it had the desired effect; for this reason, the Scriptures say, many stopped following Him (John 6:66). And then Jesus asks His closest disciples (the twelve) a curious, but necessary question, “... You do not want to go away also, do you?” John 6:67.

I can't help but wonder about the specific reason that Jesus said this. The fact that Jesus asked this question in response to so many walking away makes me suspect that Jesus realized the social impact that this mass exodus was having on the apostles. Maybe it was the look of disappointment on the faces of the apostles that so many were leaving. Maybe the apostles were getting too excited about the numbers, the size of Jesus' movement, the prospects of a physical kingdom—and then watched as Jesus deliberately said shocking things that sent lots of them home. Perhaps Jesus' words had shocked even some of the apostles enough that, especially combined with the crowds leaving, they had begun to wonder if they hadn't made a mistake about Jesus being Messiah.

Thank God for Peter, who gave the right answer, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life.” John 6:68.

Relationships are powerful things in our lives. Whether marriage, children, family, friends, colleagues, peers, neighbors, or society at large; our relationships are all powerful influences in what we think, how we feel, what we do, what we accept, and what we reject. Consequently, they can either have an influence for good in our lives or be a stumbling block for evil.

In 40 plus years of ministry I've observed husbands and wives being led away from the Lord because of an unbelieving spouse; parents that have deserted the Lord, because their children left Him; children who have followed a worldly path, because parents were weak and uncommitted in their discipleship; Christians who left the faith, because friends or colleagues tempted them and scorned them when they resisted; and even church leaders who have strayed off course, because society doesn't accept Jesus' teachings as they are given to us in the Bible.

It is the reason why the Lord forbade marriage to foreigners (Deuteronomy 7:3). Why Israel was forbidden to make any covenant with the Gentiles (Exodus 23:32,33). And why Paul warned the Corinthian Christians about being bound together with an unbeliever (2 Corinthians 6:14-18). Those with whom we associate can strongly influence us.

This is, of course, not to say that we shouldn't have any association with unbelievers at all; else how could we share the Good News?

But it is to say that we as Christians need to steel ourselves against the influences of the world around us. We need to stand convinced that the Bible is right and that what the world proclaims is not. We need to remind ourselves that our loyalty must be to the Lord first and foremost, far above all other ties. We need to remember the words of the Peter not only when he said, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life,” but also when he said, “...We must obey God rather than men,” Acts 5:29.

It's a common parent / child scenario:

Child: “But mom/dad everybody's doing it!”

Parent: “If everybody jumped off the bridge, would you want to do that, too?”

It's an answer that should ring in our ears especially, when it comes to spiritual matters: “If everybody jumped off a spiritual bridge, would you want to do that, too?” Hopefully, not.

Jesus may not have the key to popularity, but He does have the words of eternal life. Follow Him!

Park Linscomb
